

Let go or die. That's the alternative of the sick, prostrated man with the honey lungs. A great many people have the alternative before them. Business men come to a point where the doctor tells them that they must get on their feet. Probably he advised a son or a daughter. There's an obstacle in the way. The lungs are weak and perhaps inflamed. There's emaciation and other symptoms of disease, which if not cured, will only be treated to a premature death. Thousands of men and women in this condition have found complete relief by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Oh, what riches live in a sunny soul! What a blessed heritage is a sunny heart, to be able to find sunshine wherever one goes, to be able to scatter the shadows and to lighten sorrow laden hearts, to have power to send cheer into desponding souls through a sunny and a radiant heart. And if, lacking this heritage, one can find a superb manner and exquisite personality, no money wealth can compare with its value.

C. O. Long, our good friend and neighbor, has been on the sick list for several days but is better again.

Mr. Harvey Sides and Mrs. Ada Shippey were made one by Rev. Warlick on Thursday of last week. Rest wishes for a long and happy life. We wish like to have THE GAZETTE print a few lines which we accidentally ran across—and which we think carry the whole substance of a happy, peaceful and prosperous life. They run as follows:

"Suppose we think little of number one, Suppose we all try to help some one else to have fun; Suppose we never speak of the faults of a friend;

Suppose we all try our own to amend; Suppose we hide sorrow and show only cheer—

"Tis likely we'll have quite a happy New Year."

Letter to R. C. Smith,
Bedford, Pa.

Dear Sir: But few of the men who sell the hundred different paints in the market know much about them. All Devco agents have a state chemist's certificate telling just what it's made of; they know a good deal about Devco but the rest we see that they do. We buy every paint that has any sale, and analyze it. Our agent finds out all about it.

When we know what a paint is made of, we know how it will act; we know how far it goes, and how long it wears. Devco is the standard; call it 100. The best of the rest is about 75; the worst about 25; the rest are between. But the men, who sell them, don't know any better. They know what the maker tells them. That is; they know what he tells them. They don't know whether he tells them the truth or not.

The business is not conducted on knowledge; the less they know, the more comfortable they are. Yours truly,
F. W. Devco & Co.
Myer's Hardware Co., sells our paint.

Real Estate Suggestions.
THE SELLER

Have you a property for sale? Do you want to sell it quickly? If you do list it with me. I can sell it for you quicker and better than anybody else in the county.

THE BUYER
Do you want to buy a farm, a house and lot, in town, a vacant lot, a business or manufacturing establishment of any kind, or in any particular place, if so, write me. I can recommend a safe one.

TO EXCHANGE
Have you a property you want to exchange? If so, write or call to see me. I have property for exchange.

Why I do business in this line quicker than anybody else in the county.
Because I make the real estate and brokerage business a business, and so advertise it and have at all times a large list of people seeking good real estate investments and further, because my business connects with and extends all over the county, state and United States and I get a list of all properties for sale, or prospective purchasers from all the leading real estate dealers in the United States and in turn give them a list of mine, hence we have co-operation and an endless chain of advertising. Write or call to see me.
